In the paypal documentation it says that I can set the transaction response to be completed immediately, but I cant find where I do this. Any ideas? Thanks A: When you are designing your "express checkout" process, you can easily set the transaction response to be completed immediately and leave the "cart" unfinished. For example, if you have a Payment Summary & Data Type selected in the "Specify a Payment Summary & Data Type" section on the "Express Checkout" page, you can set the transaction response to be completed immediately, which will process the payment then immediately close the checkout: Ralph Edwards House (Dansville, New York) The Ralph Edwards House is a historic house located at 58
